THE CITY COUNCIL

PETER LIND NAMED AS CHIEF OF CAIRO FIRE DEPARTMENT—ONE ALDERMAN PROTESTS

Cairo Traction Co. to Be Requested to Restore Owl Cars and Other Service—J. B. Reed to Build Holdover Cells.

The city council held a business meeting last night, the second of the month, disposing of matters in a hurry and with little discussion. There were present His Honor Mayor Parsons and Aldermen Greaney, Wagner, Walsh, Nellis, Ferguson, Koehler, McDaniel, Faudree, Neff, Burke and Williams.

The mayor named Peter Lind as chief of the fire department at a salary of $75 a month. The nomination was unanimously confirmed, although Alderman Greaney made a protest declaring that he believed the mayor and council should have heeded the suggestions of citizens that an experienced fire fighter be employed from one of the larger cities, who was familiar with handling up-to-date paraphernalia, to give the Cairo department the benefit of what he knew.

Alderman Greaney said he had nothing against Mr. Lind personally and recognized him as a good fire fighter with the equipment that Cairo had in the days of the volunteer department. Mr. Greaney voted to confirm.

The bill of J. B. Reed to supply the city with hold-over cells at fire station No. 3 was accepted. It was $195 the cells to be set up ready for use. There was one bid of $161, but it was for Cairo, the city to pay for setting them up.

Building petitions of A. L. Phelps and Angus Leek were referred to building committee.

Bond of Chas. A. Castle as special police officer was referred to finance committee.

Alderman Wagner called attention to the closing of the sewers and the continued rising of the rivers, asking the instruction of the council regarding starting the pumps.

The mayor said the subject was important as the river was now over 34 feet on the gauge and was expected to rise for three or four days. It would be ten days before the sewers could be opened again, and the committee should be authorized to start the pumps if in its judgment it should be necessary.

On motion of Alderman Neff the committee was authorized as suggested.

Alderman Burke called attention to bad condition of street crossing at Tenth and Fourteenth streets on Commercial avenue, suggesting that the Rich Construction Co., and Cairo Traction Co. be urged to improve conditions. On motion Special Counsel Leek was directed to prepare notice to be served on the Rich Co.

On motion of Alderman Greaney the city marshal was directed to report all unpaid licenses and persons subject to license that they must pay.

Resolution by Alderman Greaney called for gas light at Charles and Holbrook.

Same alderman offered resolution directing the mayor to notify Cairo Traction Co. that it must restore owl car and other service recently discontinued.

Alderman Nellis offered resolution providing for plank walk on Seventeenth street from Walnut to Cedar streets.

NEW BUILDING AND LOAN

Delta Association Starts Out With Large Number of Stockholders And Good Prospects.

The new building and loan association called the Delta was fully launched Monday evening at the office of Conrad Alba, 106 Eighteenth street. The by-laws were adopted, the officers and directors were elected and the matter settled as to how much per share the monthly tax will be. It had been previously decided to make the shares 64 cents per month, but it was thought advisable to put it to 53 cents. The directors elected were: Three years, Conrad Alba, Chas. F. Miller, Ellis E. Cox; Two years, Oscar L. Herbert, G. A. Swoboda, P. W. Kobler; One year, D. M. Kelly, John C. Fisher, S. J. Michaelson.

The directors elected the following officers: President, Charles F. Miller; Vice-president, S. J. Michaelson; Secretary, Harvey C. Alba; Treasurer, Ellis E. Cox. The first series is now open for subscriptions and the prospects seem bright for a good future for the new association.

AMUSEMENTS

At Cairo Opera House.

The film service that the opera house is now presenting is pronounced fine. Some of the most interesting subjects that have ever been shown in the city have appeared on the canvas of this theatre during the past week. Today's program will be a variety of good drama and comedy. Announcement will be made tonight of extraordinary film features that will be given Thursday, besides the two regular reels.

Matinees are given daily at the opera house, starting at 2 p. m. The performances are given in the afternoon the same as at night.

FOR APPENDICITIS

Daughter of Harry Cushman III at Louisville—Hissey Woodward Another Victim.

Miss Mamie Cushman was operated upon yesterday for appendicitis at her home in Louisville, Ky. She was taken sick several days ago and word was sent to Dr. Bondurant of Cairo to attend her, but before he had left for Louisville a telephone message announced that the operation had to be done at once and the local surgeons had already performed the work and the patient was resting well.

Miss Cushman went to Louisville last February to assume a responsible position in a public institution there. She is a daughter of Harry Cushman of Park Place West. Miss Catherine Cushman will leave this morning for Louisville to care for her sister during her illness.

Another Victim in Cairo. Hissey Woodward, of the Cairo National Bank, was operated upon Monday at St. Mary's infirmary for appendicitis.

BOTH WERE TO BLAME

Coroner's Jury Declares That Woman Killed in Street Car Collision Was Careless—Motorman Also.

Coroner McManus held an inquest yesterday afternoon to enquire into the death of Serilla Cagle, the colored woman who was fatally injured in the street car collision Sunday afternoon. The inquiry was held at the council chamber and occupied three hours. There were sixteen witnesses before the jury. By courtesy of the coroner Attorney Reed Green represented the Traction company in bringing out the evidence. The evidence proved that the Commercial avenue car had been stopped before reaching the crossing; that Jerry Morrow on the car that ran into the Commercial avenue car had failed to stop before reaching the crossing as the rules of the road demand, and was not able to stop it entirely before it collided. It also proved that had the woman remained in her seat instead of getting off she would not have been injured. The following verdict was rendered by the jury:

We the undersigned jurors sworn to enquire of the death of Serilla Cagle, on oath do find that she came to her death by being crushed between two Cairo Electric and Traction Co.'s cars at Eighth and Commercial avenue in Cairo, Alexander county, Illinois, about 1:55 p. m. June 12, 1910.

We further find from the evidence that the deceased met her death through her own carelessness by jumping from the car; also we further find that there was carelessness on the part of the motorman, Jerry Morrow. Signed.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY

Remains of John Kearney Interred at Beech Grove—Services Conducted by Friends.

The funeral of John Kearney took place yesterday afternoon. A number of the good friends of the old river man accompanied the remains via literurban to the last resting place in Beech Grove cemetery. The pall bearers were Joseph Curry, Henry Clark, George Gerrick, Robert M. Bush, William Smith, William Bumpas, Charles A. Desimoni and Dewitt C. Nellis.

At the grave Mr. Clark made a few appropriate remarks and prayers were said by several of the old friends of the deceased. A beautiful floral anchor and other flowers were placed upon the grave.

scepter was seized some time ago by King Corn and is now firmly held by that monarch," he added.

But corn and cotton are not the only crops grown in the south, Mr. Ransdell gave the house to understand. He told of a great change that had come over it, and the present practice of diversification of crops.

With this diversity of crops, the congressman painted the south as a fine place for domestic animals. He grew real enthusiastic over the advantages of "my own Louisiana for the lowly porker."

The farms were not the only things the south had to offer, Mr. Ransdell informed the house. He suggested that an inspection of mining, mercantile and manufacturing statistics would show that.

He challenged the statements that the south was not a healthy section. The whites, he said, were just as healthy as whites in any other portion of the country. "The negro race is not healthy," he admitted, "for reasons which the scope of this speech prevents me from discussing."

The Negroes.
Speaking of the negroes, the congressman had something interesting to say about the race question.

"Some one asks about the race question in the south," said Mr. Ransdell, "whether the Caucasian and the negro can dwell together in harmony. I unhesitatingly answer that they cannot do live in the most perfect unity, each race pursuing its own methods and working out its own destiny in friendly co-operation and competition, but without social commingling. The negro question is settling itself, and under the guidance of a wise Providence the negroes not only of the South, but throughout the entire Union, are destined to fill their places and do their part in kindly friendship with their white brethren. In many localities of the south there are very few negroes, and prospective immigrants can regulate this question entirely by settling in colonies, a plan which has very much to recommend it."

"But even without colonies there is nothing in the negro question to cause trouble. A matter of fact there are innumerable white farmers scattered throughout the south, and it goes without saying that the majority of the people in cities and in business pursuits are whites."

How Anty Drudge Keeps Cool.

Mrs. Heatup—"Gracious, Anty, you look cool as a cucumber, and here am I dripping with perspiration. And I know you started your wash the same time I did."

Anty Drudge—"Quite true, but I wash my clothes with Fels-Naptha soap. If you used Fels-Naptha, your clothes would be washed in half the time. Besides, I didn't have to do any back-breaking rubbing over a steaming wash. I used Fels-Naptha soap the Fels-Naptha way. Why don't you?"

More white things are worn in the summer—lawns, flannels, muslins and so forth. That means more washing. Likewise more hard work—unless Fels-Naptha soap is used.

Fels-Naptha simplifies summer washing and does it more satisfactorily. No hot fire is needed. That means a good deal when the thermometer is 90 in the shade.

Fels-Naptha does the washing thoroughly in cold or lukewarm water. Cold or lukewarm water saves the clothes. Boiling and hot water weaken clothes so they tear easily.

Fels-Naptha will not harm the most delicate fabric. Neither will it injure light-colored things which could not be washed safely with other soaps or in hot water.

The advantage of using Fels-Naptha soap is the Fels-Naptha way of washing.

Don't cook your clothes. Use Fels-Naptha. It does the work better in cold or lukewarm water.

Follow directions on the red and green wrapper.

What if Your Place of Business Burned Tonight

Could you take up your life as it was before?

Could you replace your investment? Could you rebuild? These are pertinent questions, and questions to be considered seriously, NOW. After the fire it will be too late, and that fire may visit you tonight. If you are fully insured in a reliable Company, you need not be worried; because the loss will be adjusted promptly, and you will not be seriously handicapped. If you are not insured, or if you are not carrying enough insurance there is a worry due you. We would suggest that you take the matter up with us immediately. We will attend to the rest. What you will have to pay is such a small amount that it is hardly a consideration.
